MISCELLANEOUS READING. [COMMUNICATED. THOU ART WELCOME BACK SWEET SUMMER .- BY LARRY LER.

Thou art welcome back, sweet summer. Thou are welcome back again. With thy lilied valleys beaming, With the freshness of thy name:

Thou art welcome with thy breezes,-O'er mountain, lane, and lea, With thy skies of deepest azure, Thou art welcome back to me.

For thy streams of limpid waters, For thy fields of virgin dew, For thy canopy of brightness, For thy brow unscathed, and new

For thy bounteous sea of sweetness, For thy songs and smiles so bright, For thy heart of love and lightness, I have longed each day and night. To the cypress on the mountain,

To the vine tree on the hill, To the flocks within the valley, To the gay plumed whipperwill: To the light and joyous hearted, To the dim lit prison wall,

To the home bedewed with sadness, Thou art welcome to them all Thou art welcome back, sweet summer. Thou art welcome back again, With thy lilied valleys beaming,

With the freshness of thy name: With thy brow festooned with roses, With thy cheek without a stain, Thou art welcome back, sweet summer.
